

Editorial Volume 6, Issue 10

Authors: María Fernanda Sandoval
Submitted: 3. November 2019
Published: 4. November 2019
Volume: 6
Issue: 11
Affiliation: IASHA e.V., Freiburg, Germany
Languages: English
Keywords: Editorial, Josha Journal, 2019, October
Categories: News and Views
DOI: 10.17160/josha.6.11.610

Abstract:

This editorial concludes issue 10 of October 2019. All together we had the honor to present and publish five different articles from two different fields. We have received three wonderful poems translated from German into Romanian by Dragos Caracevici and two more interesting articles presented by Sigrun L

JOSHA

josha.org

Journal of Science, Humanities and Arts

JOSHA is a service that helps scholars, researchers, and students discover, use, and build upon a wide range of content

JOSHA - Journal of Science Humanities and Arts Editorial Volume 6 Issue 10

This editorial concludes issue 10 of October 2019. All together we had the honor to present and publish five different articles from two different fields. We have received three wonderful poems translated from German into Romanian and the poems belong to the wonderful German writer, publicist, screenwriter, and cabaret poet, Erich Kästner. The translation of this collection of poems The first poem is entitled "Eine Mutter zieht Bilanz" and can be heard in German by following the link from the website "GESPROCHENE DEUTSCHE LYRIK". The second poem is entitled "Lob der Volksvertreter" and can be heard in German by following the link to the YouTube Chanel of Ralph Mr. Light with the interpretation of Ulrich Gebauer. The third poem is entitled "Sachliche Romanze" and can be heard in German by following the link from the website "GESPROCHENE DEUTSCHE LYRIK".

The more two articles in the field of politics, social and law presented by Sigrun Löwisch and the second article written by Margrit Seckelmann. The first one, entitled "Quality and Protection of Confidence - Qualität und Vertrauensschutz", discusses the topic around patients and psychotherapists. More specific about the passing of the Psychotherapists Act by the Bundestag and the Bundesrat is good news. The understanding between the coalition and the opposition in this matter, which has been controversial for almost 20 years, is also proof of the ability of Germany's much-criticized politicians to act. It shows that it is also possible to drill thick boards if the Bundesrat enters into a fact-oriented discussion and the Länderkammer is not misused as a pure blockade instrument. Sigrun löwisch is a German politician of the CDU. She was a member of the German Bundestag from 1991 to 1998.

Other interesting topics were discussed at the conference of the Association for the Promotion of German and International Science Law on 7 and 8 March 2019 in Berlin (on the first day in the rooms of the Berlin-Brandenburg Academy of Sciences and Humanities). the article brought together academics from various disciplines and practitioners - in keeping with the conference organizer's programs. The research interests of PD Dr. Margrit Seckelmann cover the fields of Public Law, Legal History, Legal Theory, Administrative Sciences and, namely, the regulation of new technologies. I approach these topics primarily from the perspective of constitutional law and particularly enjoy working in interdisciplinary projects, for example in the field of legal informatics or in collaboration with social sciences. This article was previously published in Ordnung der Wissenschaft 2019. ISSN 2197-9197.

We are happy to carry on a successful way with all your support and hope to have a wonderful Sommer overflowing with endless interesting articles from all over the world. Together, we have achieved so much in such a short time. Therefore, we thank you and promise to continue to work to connect more authors around the world and continue to share important knowledge, because the knowledge that is not communicated is wasted knowledge!

The Editorial Board and everybody in JOSHA would like to thank our readers and authors for supporting this project. We wish all our readers a joyful reading experience at JOSHA!

Table of content: <http://josha-journal.org/en/issues>

Maria Sandoval on behalf of the JOSHA Team